Auntie Mame: An Irreverent Escapade is a 1955 novel by American author Patrick Dennis chronicling the madcap adventures of a boy, Patrick, growing up as the ward of the sister of his dead father. The book is often described as having been inspired by Dennis' real-life eccentric aunt, Marion Tanner, [2] whose life and outlook mirrored those of Mame, but Dennis himself denied the connection. Die Fortsetzung von "Auntie Mame: An Irreverent Escapade" ist recht schön, kommt aber nicht ganz an das erste Buch heran. Wie versprochen nimmt Mame ihren Neffen Patrick auf eine Weltreise mit, die sie nach Paris, London, Venedig, Österreich, Russland und Asien bringt, und in der sie wieder zahlreiche Erlebnisse miteinander teilen.
