I hope this article answered the question “what are the steps to building a house?” was informative for you. Good luck with your new home building project. If you have any questions let me know. Good luck with your new home building project. Building in the Florida Keys is highly competitive and is regulated by the Rate of Growth Ordinance, or ROGO. Anyone interested in purchasing land in the Florida Keys, or even those considering purchasing a home who may want to make additions, needs to understand ROGO. Your house keys are the gateway to your home, and losing this restricts your access, while potentially giving someone unfettered access to your home. It is for this reason that many homeowners ask about changing locks as a result of lost house keys. To help you prepare for and understand your new home's construction, this article outlines the typical steps your builder will take during the construction of a new home and will help keep you abreast of what happens at key stages.
