Kites are fun for all ages, and the family-owned Kite Company on Hwy 101 in Newport is the best place to find them. We have been doing so many playdough and other sensory activities lately that it was about time to get back to a simple and playful alphabet activity. I’m a children’s librarian at a public library branch with a monarch waystation. We’re always looking for good butterfly and caterpillar activities so we can teach the kids about monarchs.
