

Download High Performance Marine Vessels

End-to-end solutions that ensures optimum performance. A world leader in the design and manufacture of high performance, advanced marine fender systems, Trelleborg Marine Systems provides end-to-end solutions to ensure your fenders meet your specification. The CS Ile De Re is a versatile vessel capable of handling both subsea cable installation and remedial works. The high-speed vessel is exemplary for working in even harsh conditions. The small and portable 8 feet 10 inch Dana model by Newport Vessels is perfect to use as a versatile tender for all things. The Dana model inflatable boat has sports the extra large 18 inch tubes which makes it stable and maneuverable. New propulsion systems developed by MTU – for cleaner and stronger vessels that can transport more passengers.