

Download Interpretation Of President Wilson's Fourteen Points

The Fourteen Points was a statement of principles for peace that was to be used for peace negotiations in order to end World War I. The principles were outlined in a January 8, 1918 speech on war aims and peace terms to the United States Congress by President Woodrow Wilson. Though Wilson championed the League of Nations, the United States would never join. A concurrent resolution of Congress requires the consent of both houses of Congress, but, significantly, does not require the consent of the President.
