Hi Kim, So happy you're enjoying all the recipes. I do think you could get away with making this ahead. I'd reheat the chicken and peppers, covered with foil, in a 325° oven until the chicken is warmed through (be careful not to overcook). Last visit was for new year eve dinner. We were seated promptly, but due to large crowd, service was slow. My wife ordered veal piccata, which was slow to arrive, but delicious. With fall sports season in full swing, our evenings are sometimes always hectic. Back in July when I picked up my 40 pounds of ground beef, one of the recipes I made and froze was a simple meat loaf. It makes dinner time on crazy nights a piece of cake. I just throw the meatloaf [...] These Cheesesteak Egg Rolls are quite simply – amazing! Last month I had the huge pleasure of joining 10 other bloggers for a weekend visit to the Certified Angus Beef brand headquarters in Wooster, Ohio.
