

Download Secondary Education In The 21st Century

On A-level results day, Tony Blair reflects on the education reforms his government made, and what needs to be done today to ensure pupils thrive in an ever-changing world. Our world is changing, and in order to prepare our children for this new world we need to change the way we educate them. In the 21st century educators must create a curriculum that will help students connect with the world and understand the issues that our world faces.
