The Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina is a state-recognized tribe of obscure tribal origins numbering approximately 60,000 enrolled members, most of them living in Robeson and the adjacent counties in south-central North Carolina. Paid to Love (1927) is a satiric comedy set in a small European kingdom. Paid to Love is often dismissed as none-too-Hawksian. Indeed, it has a different tone and feel from Hawks' most famous sound films. The red-tailed hawk spirit animal brings us divine messages. Red-tailed hawk symbolism is the embodiment of the tribe and our relationship to community. When lions hunt elephants, they usually target youngsters or females, and they almost always attack from behind. They circle round a straggler, jump onto its back and flanks (out of way of the ...
